10. That the League of Nations should be held by the British Empire, France and Italy.

2. That an Inter-Allied Committee consisting of one Representative each of the British Empire, France and Italy, should be formed to consider the application of Article 13 of the Treaty of London, dated 26th April, 1915.
3. That the above decisions should be published.

2) L'ARTICLE 22 DU PACTE.

1. Les principes suivants s'appliquent aux colonies et territoires qui, à la suite de la guerre, ont cessé d'être sous la souveraineté des États qui les gouvernaient précédemment et qui sont habités par des peuples non encore capables de se diriger eux-mêmes dans les conditions particulièrement difficiles du monde moderne. Le bien-être et le développement de ces peuples forment une mission sacrée de civilisation, et il convient d'incorporer dans le présent Pacte des garanties pour l'accomplissement de cette mission.

2. La meilleure méthode de réaliser pratiquement ce principe est de confier la tutelle de ces peuples aux nations développées qui, en raison de leurs ressources, de leur expérience ou de leur position géographique, sont le mieux à même d'assumer cette responsabilité et qui consentent à l'accepter : elles exerceraient cette tutelle en qualité de Mandataires et au nom de la Société.

3. Le caractère du mandat doit différer suivant le degré de développement du peuple, la situation géographique du territoire, ses conditions économiques et toutes autres circonstances analogues.

4. Certaines communautés, qui appartenaient autrefois à l'Empire ottoman, ont atteint un degré de développement tel que leur existence comme nations indépendantes peut être reconnue provisoirement, à la condition que les conseils et l'aide d'un Mandataire guident leur administration jusqu'au moment où elles seront capable de se conduire seules. Les vœux de ces communautés doivent être pris d'abord en considération pour le choix du Mandataire.

2) ARTICLE 22 OF THE COVENANT.

1. To those colonies and territories which as a consequence of the late war have ceased to be under the sovereignty of the States which formerly governed them and which are inhabited by peoples not yet able to stand by themselves under the strenuous conditions of the modern world, there should be applied the principle that the wellbeing and development of such peoples form a sacred trust of civilisation and that securities for the performance of this trust should be embodied in this Covenant.

2. The best method of giving practical effect to this principle is that the tutelage of such peoples should be entrusted to advanced nations who by reason of their resources, their experience or their geographical position can best undertake this responsibility, and who are willing to accept it, and that this tutelage should be exercised by them as Mandatories on behalf of the League.

3. The character of the mandate must differ according to the stage of the development of the people, the geographical situation of the territory, its economic conditions and other similar circumstances.

4. Certain communities formerly belonging to the Turkish Empire have reached a stage of development where their existence as independent nations can be provisionally recognised subject to the rendering of administrative advice and assistance by a Mandatory until such time as they are able to stand alone. The wishes of these communities must be a principal consideration in the selection of the Mandatory.

5. Le degré de développement où se trouvent d'autres peuples, spécialement ceux de l'Afrique centrale, exige que le Mandataire y assume l'administration du territoire à des conditions qui, avec la prohibition d'abus, tels que la traite des esclaves, le trafic des armes et celui de l'alcool, garantiront la liberté de conscience et de religion, sans autres limitations que celles que peut imposer le maintien de l'ordre public et des bonnes mœurs, et l'interdiction d'établir des fortifications ou des bases militaires ou navales et de donner aux indigènes une instruction militaire, si ce n'est pour la police ou la défense du territoire et qui assureront également aux autres Membres de la Société des conditions d'égalité pour les échanges et le commerce.

6. Enfin il y a des territoires, tels que le Sud-Ouest Africain et certaines îles du Pacifique austral, qui, par suite de la faible densité de leur population, de leur superficie restreinte, de leur éloignement des centres de civilisation, de leur contiguïté géographique au territoire du Mandataire, ou d'autres circonstances, ne sauraient être mieux administrés que sous les lois du Mandataire, comme une partie intégrante de son territoire, sous réserve des garanties prévues plus haut dans l'intérêt de la population indigène.

7. Dans tous les cas, le Mandataire doit envoyer au conseil un rapport annuel concernant les territoires dont il a la charge.

8. Si le degré d'autorité, de contrôle ou d'administration à exercer par le Mandataire n'a pas fait l'objet d'une convention antérieure entre les Membres de la Société, il sera expressément statué sur ces points par le Conseil.

5. Other peoples, especially those of Central Africa, are at such a stage that the Mandatory must be responsible for the administration of the territory under conditions which will guarantee freedom of conscience and religion, subject only to the maintenance of public order and morals, the prohibition of abuses such as the slave trade, the arms traffic and the liquor traffic, and the prevention of the establishment of fortifications or military and naval bases and of military training of the natives for other than police purposes and the defence of territory, and will also secure equal opportunities for the trade and commerce of other Members of the League.

6. There are territories, such as South-West Africa and certain of the South Pacific Islands, which, owing to the sparseness of their population, or their small size, or their remoteness from the centres of civilisation, or their geographical contiguity to the territory of the Mandatory, and other circumstances, can be best administered under the law of the Mandatory as integral portions of its territory, subject to the safeguards above mentioned in the interests of the indigenous population.

7. In every case of mandate, the Mandatory shall render to the Council an annual report in reference to the territory committed to its charge.

8. The degree of authority, control, or administration to be exercised by the Mandatory shall, if not previously agreed upon by the Members of the League, be explicitly defined in each case by the Council.

L'Allemagne s'engage dès à présent à reconnaître et à agréer les mesures qui sont ou seront prises par les Principales Puissances alliées et associées, d'accord, s'il y a lieu, avec les tierces Puissances, en vue de régler les conséquences de la disposition qui précède.

4) MANDAT POUR LES ANCIENNES COLONIES
ALLEMANDES SITUÉES AU NORD DE
L'ÉQUATEUR, DANS L'OcéAN
PACIFIQUE.

LE CONSEIL DE LA SOCIÉTÉ DES NATIONS:

Considérant que, par l'article 119 du Traité de Paix avec l'Allemagne signé à Versailles le 28 juin 1919, l'Allemagne a renoncé, en faveur des Principales Puissances alliées et associées à tous ses droits sur ses possessions d'outre-mer, y compris le groupe d'îles situé au nord de l'Équateur dans l'Océan Pacifique;

Considérant que les Principales Puissances alliées et associées ont convenu qu'un mandat soit conféré à Sa Majesté l'Empereur du Japon pour administrer, conformément à l'article 22 du Pacte de la Société des Nations, les dites îles et ont proposé que le mandat soit formulé ainsi que suit:

Considérant que Sa Majesté l'Empereur du Japon s'est engagée à accepter le mandat sur les dites îles et a entrepris de l'exercer au nom de la Société des Nations, conformément aux dispositions suivantes;

4) MANDATE FOR THE GERMAN POSSESS-
SIONS IN THE PACIFIC OCEAN LYING NORTH OF THE EQUATOR.

THE COUNCIL OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS:

Whereas, by Article 119 of the Treaty of Peace with Germany signed at Versailles on June 28th, 1919, Germany renounced in favour of the Principal Allied and Associated Powers all her rights over her oversea possessions, including therein the groups of islands in the Pacific Ocean lying north of the Equator; and

Par la présente, confirmant le mandat, a statué sur ses termes comme suit :

5) DÉCLARATION DU GOUVERNEMENT JAPONAIS
TOUCHANT LES MANDATS "C".

En se fondant sur l'esprit et sur les principes fondamentaux de la Société des Nations et sur l'interprétation du Pacte, le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté Impériale Japonaise est fermement convaincu de la justice de la revendication qu'il a faite jusqu'ici en vue d'obtenir l'insertion dans les mandats "C" d'une clause assurant l'égalité de traitement en matière d'échanges et de commerce. Toutefois, dans un esprit de conciliation et de coopération, et pour éviter de laisser plus longtemps la question en suspens, ce Gouvernement a décidé d'agréer que le mandat soit publié sous sa forme actuelle. Cette décision, cependant, ne doit pas être considérée comme impliquant que le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté Impériale Japonaise accepte que les sujets japonais soient soumis, dans les territoires placés sous mandat, à un traitement comportant une discrimination désavantageuse à leur égard. Ce Gouvernement n'entend pas davantage renoncer à la réclamation qu'il a faite en déclarant que les droits et les intérêts des sujets japonais, dans ces territoires, tels qu'ils existaient dans le passé, doivent être complètement respectés.

5) DECLARATION BY THE JAPANESE GOVERNMENT
RELATING TO "C" MANDATES.

From the fundamental spirit of the League of Nations and as the question of interpretation of the Covenant, His Imperial Japanese Majesty's Government have a firm conviction in the justice of the claim they have hitherto made for the inclusion of a clause concerning the assurance of equal opportunities for trade and commerce in "C" Mandates. But from the spirit of conciliation and cooperation and their reluctance to see the question unsettled any longer, they have decided to agree to the issue of the Mandate in its present form. That decision, however, should not be considered as an acquiescence on the part of His Imperial Japanese Majesty's Government in the submission of Japanese subjects to a discriminatory and disadvantageous treatment in the Mandated territories; nor have they thereby discarded their claim that the rights and interests enjoyed by Japanese subjects in these territories in the past should be fully respected.

7) TREATY BETWEEN JAPAN AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA CONCERNING THE ISLAND
OF YAP AND OTHER MANDATED ISLANDS
SITUATED IN THE PACIFIC OCEAN AND LYING NORTH OF THE EQUATOR.

*Signed at Washington, in English, February 11, 1922 (11th

Ratified June 23, 1922.

Ratifications exchanged at Washington, July 13, 1922.

Put in operation July 13, 1922.

Japan and the United States of America ;

Considering that by Article 119 of the Treaty of Versailles, signed on June 28, 1919, Germany renounced in favor of the Powers described in that Treaty as the Principal Allied and Associated Powers, to wit, the United States of America, the British Empire, France, Italy and Japan, all her rights and titles over her oversea possessions ;

Considering that the benefits accruing to the United States under the aforesaid Article 119 of the Treaty of Versailles were confirmed by the Treaty between the United States and Germany, signed on August 25, 1921, to restore friendly relations between the two nations ;

Considering that the said four Powers, to wit, the British Empire, France, Italy and Japan, have agreed to confer upon His Majesty the Emperor of Japan a mandate, pursuant to the Treaty of Versailles, to administer the groups of the former German Islands in the Pacific Ocean lying north of the Equator, in accordance with the following provisions :

“ Article 1. The islands over which a Mandate is conferred upon His Majesty the Emperor of Japan (hereinafter called the Mandatory) comprise all the former German islands situated in the Pacific Ocean and lying north of the Equator.

“ Article 2. The Mandatory shall have full power of administration and legislation over the territory subject to the present Mandate as an integral portion of the Empire of Japan, and may apply the laws of the Empire of Japan to the territory, subject to such local modifications as circumstances may require.

The Mandatory shall promote to the utmost the material and moral well-being and the social progress of the inhabitants of the territory subject to the present Mandate.

“ Article 3. The Mandatory shall see that the slave trade is prohibited and that no forced labour is permitted, except for essential public works and services, and then only for adequate remuneration.

The Mandatory shall also see that the traffic in arms and ammunition is controlled in accordance with principles analogous to those laid down in the Convention relating to the control of the arms traffic, signed on September 10th, 1919, or in any convention amending same.

The supply of intoxicating spirits and beverages to the natives shall be prohibited.

“ Article 4. The military training of the natives, otherwise than for purposes of internal police and the local defence of the territory, shall be prohibited. Furthermore, no military or naval bases shall be established or fortifications erected in the territory.

“ Article 5. Subject to the provisions of any local law for the maintenance of public order and public morals, the Mandatory shall ensure in the territory freedom of conscience and the free exercise of all forms of worship, and shall allow all missionaries, nationals of any State Member of the League of Nations, to enter into, travel and reside in the territory for the purpose of prosecuting their calling.

“ Article 6. The Mandatory shall make to the Council of the League of Nations an annual report to the satisfaction of the Council, containing full information with regard to the territory, and indicating the measures taken to carry out the obligations assumed under Articles 2, 3, 4, and 5.

“ Article 7. The consent of the Council of the League of Nations is required for any modification of the terms of the present mandate.

The Mandatory agrees that, if any dispute whatever should arise between the Mandatory and another member of the League of Nations relating to the interpretation or the application of the provisions of the Mandate, such dispute, if it cannot be settled by negotiation, shall be submitted to the Permanent Court of International Justice provided for by Article 14 of the Covenant of the League of Nations”;

Considering that the United States did not ratify the Treaty of Versailles and did not participate in the agreement respecting the aforesaid Mandate;

Desiring to reach a definite understanding with regard to the rights of the two governments and their respective nationals in the aforesaid islands, and in particular the Island of Yap, have resolved to conclude a Convention for that purpose and to that end have named as their Plenipotentiaries:

His Majesty the Emperor of Japan: Baron Kijuro Shidehara, His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at Washington and

The President of the United States of America: Charles Evans Hughes, Secretary of State of the United States;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found to be in good and due form, have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE 1.

Subject to the provisions of the present Convention, the United States consents to the administration by Japan, pursuant to the aforesaid Mandate, of all the former German Islands in the Pacific Ocean, laying north of the Equator.

ARTICLE 2.

The United States and its nationals shall receive all the benefit of the engagements of Japan, defined in Articles 3, 4 and 5 of the aforesaid Mandate, notwithstanding the fact that the United States is not a Member of the League of Nations.

It is further agreed between the High Contracting Parties as follows:

(1) Japan shall insure in the islands complete freedom of conscience and the free exercise of all forms of worship which are consonant with public order and morality; American missionaries of all such religions shall be free to enter the islands and to travel and reside therein, to acquire and possess property, to erect religious buildings and to open schools throughout the islands; it being understood, however, that Japan shall have the right to exercise such control as may be necessary for the maintenance of public order and good government and to take all measures required for such control.

(2) Vested American property rights in the mandated islands shall be respected and in no way impaired;

(3) Existing treaties between the United States and Japan shall be applicable to the mandated islands;

(4) Japan will address to the United States a duplicate of the annual report on the administration of the Mandate to be made by Japan to the Council of the League of Nations;

(5) Nothing contained in the present Convention shall be affected by any modification which may be made in the terms of the Mandate as recited in the Convention, unless such modification shall have been expressly assented to by the United States.

ARTICLE 3.

The United States and its nationals shall have free access to the Island of Yap on a footing of entire equality with Japan or any other nation and their respective nationals in all that relates to the landing and operation of the existing Yap-Guam cable or of any cable which may hereafter be laid or operated by the United States or by its nationals connecting with the Island of Yap.

The rights and privileges embraced by the preceding paragraph shall also be accorded to the Government of the United States and its nationals with respect to radio-telegraphic communication; provided, however, that so long as the Government of Japan shall maintain on the Island of Yap an adequate radio-telegraphic station, cooperating effectively with the cables and with other radio stations on ships or on shore, without discriminatory exactions or preferences, the exercise of the right to establish radio-telegraphic stations on the Island by the United States or its nationals shall be suspended.

ARTICLE 4.

In connection with the rights embraced by Article 3, specific rights, privileges and exemptions, in so far as they relate to electrical communications, shall be enjoyed in the Island of Yap by the United States and its nationals in terms as follows:

(1) Nationals of the United States shall have the unrestricted right to reside in the Island, and the United States and its nationals shall have the right to acquire and hold on a footing of entire equality with Japan or any other nation or their respective nationals all kinds of property and interests, both personal and real, including lands, buildings, residences, offices, works and appurtenances.

(2) Nationals of the United States shall not be obliged to obtain any permit or license in order to be entitled to land and operate cables on the Island, or to establish radio-telegraphic service, subject to the provisions of Article 3, or to enjoy any of the rights and privileges embraced by this Article and by Article 3.

(3) No censorship or supervision shall be exercised over cable or radio messages or operations.

(4) Nationals of the United States shall have complete freedom of entry and exit in the Island for their persons and property.

(5) No taxes, port, harbour, or landing charges or exactions of any nature whatsoever, shall be levied either with respect to the operation of cables or radio stations, or with respect to property, persons or vessels.

(6) No discriminatory police regulations shall be enforced.

(7) The Government of Japan will exercise its power of expropriation in the Island to secure to the United States or its nationals needed property and facilities for the purpose of electrical communications if such property or facilities cannot otherwise be obtained.

It is understood that the location and the area of land so to be expropriated shall be arranged between the two Governments according to the requirements of each case. Property of the United States or of its nationals and facilities for the purpose of electrical communication in the Island shall not be subject to expropriation.

ARTICLE 5.

The present Convention shall be ratified by the High Contracting Parties in accordance with their respective constitutions. The ratifications of this Convention shall be exchanged in Washington as soon as practicable, and it shall take effect on the date of the exchange of the ratifications.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed this Convention and have hereunto affixed their seals.
