Handwritten Japanese text in cursive (sōsho) style, written vertically on aged paper. The text is dense and spans the entire page, with some characters appearing to be in a different script or dialect. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of age and wear.
