Handwritten text in cursive script, likely a list or account. The text is written vertically on the right page of the document. It appears to be a list of items or transactions, possibly related to a household or a business, given the context of the National Archives of Japan. The characters are highly stylized and difficult to decipher without a key.

Handwritten text in the upper right section, continuing the cursive script.
